4. [REDACTED]
West Virginia, who requested information as to whether or not she is able to give a talk on the Agency was a GS-4, Clerk-Typist in ORR, from 20 May 1957 until her resignation November 7, 1958. As long as Subject refrains from disclosing any classified information, she cannot be denied permission to give the talk requested. However, it is the opinion of this Office that every effort should be made to discourage Subject from making speeches about the Agency. We would appreciate a copy of any reply sent to this letter for our files.
